The mark of responsible forestry

SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY INITIATIVE

SFI-02011

The Forest Stewardship Council® (FSC®) and the Sustainable Forestry Initiative® (SFI®) are organizations that manage forest certification schemes focused on sustainable forestry practices. Koozie Group became certified to both standards in August 2021.

Our collection of FSC®- & SFI®-certified products continues to expand.

500+ items & growing!

KG Factor products have a high likelihood of being kept or gifted as determined by an impartial survey of consumers. The KG Factor designation helps identify promo solutions that lessen environmental impact through longevity.

85%

of people would keep a KG Factor item or give it to a friend because it is useful, functional, durable, and attractive.

70+%

of our products carry the KG Factor designation.

75%

of new products have a proven sustainability stance.

Recycled Materials: A Glossary

Post-Consumer Recycled Paper

This material gives new life to a note, newspaper, or piece of homework that an eco-conscious someone tossed into their recycling bin.

RPET

PET is the most common type of resin and is used in containers that hold anything from water to shampoo to peanut butter. This discarded packaging is recycled and finds its way into a variety of different products, from bags to headwear to pens.

Pre-Consumer Recycled Plastic

Made from scrap or discards, this Earth-friendlier alternative saves manufacturing waste from the landfill.

Nearly seventy percent of consumers say a brand's sustainability practices shape their purchasing decisions.*

70%

*asicentral.com/news/web-exclusive/april-2022/it-s-time-for-promo-to-fully-embrace-sustainability/

We want to do business in a way that benefits our people, our customers, our communities, and our industry.

We call this vision Keep It. Give It.

safety & social responsibility

Koozie Group is an industry leader in product safety, quality assurance, social responsibility and supply chain security.

Part of the PPAI “We Are Product Safety Aware” initiative to create confidence in promo products as an advertising medium at every level

We are C-TPAT Tier II Certified by US Customs which evidences our superior commitment to supply chain security.

Our US facilities have earned FSC & SFI certifications.

Fair labor should be the standard, not the exception. That’s why we’re a member of the Fair Labor Association.

values in action

To reflect our Keep It. Give It. commitment, we created a sample mailing featuring some of our greener writing instruments. We inserted the pens into an RPET pouch along with an educational piece with more details about adding an eco-slant to branded products. And – because materials matter – the mailing envelope was 100% compostable and featured a water-soluble label with dissolvable adhesive.

- Rigorous product testing
- Technology items tested to UL, UN, FCC standards
- Products comply with Children’s Product Safety Rules (CPSIA)
- Health, Wellness & Safety products are FDA-regulation compliant
- All products are Prop 65 compliant
- All plastic drinkware is BPA free
- All cotton is ethically sourced

Keep It. Give It. Live It!

Our dedicated employees packed 2,000 backpacks with school supplies, which were then donated to regional chapters of United Way!

environmental stewardship

- EPA SmartWay Shipper
- Styrofoam cups and plastic stir sticks removed from all facilities
- 100% of outgoing corrugate packaging is SFI-certified and made from 100% recyclable and/or recycled materials
- 4,379 tons of paper and cardboard recycled annually
- 83% of all waste is recycled
- 1.5 million plastic bags kept out of the waste stream by receiving and shipping acrylic drinkware without them

case study

Client: cyber security firm

Purpose: job fair giveaway

A cyber security firm was hunting for a nice giveaway to use at job fairs and college recruitment events. They wanted to make a good impression given the competition for qualified candidates. They opted for the SCX Design® Eco Ring Light Cable. They knew their target audience would put a high-quality, versatile tech accessory to good use, and this cable was on target with its ability to charge up to 3 devices at a time. Extra features were plentiful, too, including the light-up logo that makes the cable hard to miss, recycled materials used in its construction, and the carabiner clip at the top to help keep the cable accessible. Recruiters slipped their business cards into the included pouch and reported higher-than-normal traffic at their booths.

Client: hospital

Purpose: wellness education

As part of a series of well-being events, a local hospital sponsored a speaker who focused on gratitude to build a more positive mindset. The speaker discussed the benefits of taking a moment at the end of each day to write down three things that went well and then reflecting on why they went well. To help participants get started, the hospital provided the Souvenir® Daven Journal with Daven Pen so they could practice the exercise during the event and continue once they got home.

Client: community college

Purpose: orientation leader appreciation

A community college wanted a way to thank their new student orientation leaders. They had noticed the trend for students to use fanny packs around campus, so they opted for the KAPSTON® Willow Recycled Fanny Pack. They knew it would be useful during orientation and that the student leaders would appreciate that it's made of RPET fabric. When administration got wind that many new students were interested in purchasing a fanny pack of their own, they added them to their bookstore offerings.

Client: church

Purpose: volunteer thank you

At Christmas, a large church wanted to show gratitude to their many volunteers. The gift had to express their values, so they selected the Reflections Appointment Calendar. They distributed the calendar to ushers, greeters, Sunday School teachers, and more, accompanied by a card from the church council. They also offered the calendars for sale before and after services and used the proceeds to fund outreach programs the following year. The calendars were well received, and the church continues to order them each year.

Insulation Information

In many containers, heat or cold finds its way in and out through convection. Containers with vacuum insulation will create an airless space between the walls. This will stop the convection process, which eliminates any change in temperature. This allows for your beverages to remain icy cold or steaming hot longer.

- Exclusive Designs
- Side 1 & 2 and wraparound capabilities on most items
- Same set-up charge; no additional run charges on most items
- Full-color imprints on over 80 items
- BPA free

Insulation Guide

Having drinkware that is insulated helps to keep your beverages at just the right temperature. Here are some different types of insulation you can expect to find.

Air Insulation
Air between inner & outer walls

Foam Insulation
Foam between inner & outer walls

Vacuum Insulation
No air between inner & outer walls

Copper Vacuum Insulation
No air between inner & outer walls + copper-plated inner wall adds a layer of temperature retention

case study

When a credit union was looking to purchase pens for their multiple branches, they had several criteria. First, they needed blue ink. Secondly, they wanted the pen to reflect an Americana theme, including being assembled in the USA. The BIC® Round Stic® Pen fit the bill perfectly. Using free Mix & Match, they selected a red cap and blue barrel with a white imprint to create a look that turned out exactly how they wanted. They loved the quality of the BIC®-branded pen and received many comments from customers about how sharp the pens looked and how well they performed.

case study

A residential construction firm wanted employees to have an easy way to stay hydrated on the job. They gave each tradesperson their own Energetic Vacuum Sport Bottle with Hanger - 33 oz. This stainless steel bottle was rugged enough to stand up to heavy use, and the leak-proof, screw-on lid was perfect for avoiding spills. The company provided large coolers in various locations across each of their job sites so employees could refill their bottles with cold water throughout the day.

 Good Value.

case study

An insurance agency wanted to hand out some useful items at their customer appreciation picnic. Using a budget-conscious approach, they selected several products: the Aluminum Bottle Opener; the Lil' Chizler™; the Delight Silicone Straw in Box with Keychain; and the Koozie® Coaster - Round. Attendees chose which items suited them best, and with appealing price points, the company felt comfortable letting customers take as many as they wanted. At the end of the event, organizers noticed fewer left-behind giveaways than in previous years, and the team took the remaining items to the office to share with customers who didn't attend the BBQ.

case study

To boost participation in its Earth Day event, a chamber of commerce decided to give away a useful eco-friendly product to each person who joined its annual beach cleanup. They selected the Koozie® Lagoon Dual-Compartment Lunch Kooler. Not only was the group drawn to the cooler's tropical print, but they also loved that it's made with RPET. The chamber had a record turnout for the event; the cleaned beach was welcoming for residents and visitors alike; and the organization gained several new members who appreciated its community outreach efforts.

case study

With high demand after a storm in their service area, a roofing company wanted to thank customers for their patience. When they did their on-site quote, they left behind not only a timeline of next steps but also the SCX Design® Maple Wood Wireless Power Bank 5000 mAh. The company liked the universal nature of the power bank and knew it would appeal to a broad range of clients. The maple wood trim and back gave it an upscale feel, and the RPET cables reflected the company's environmental values. Finally, the included gift box made for a nice presentation when their team gave it to customers. Clients were delighted to receive such a useful gift and joked that it would come in handy the next time a storm rolled around.

case study

Wanting to kick off their new sustainability efforts on the right foot, a law firm provided each employee with a supply of both the Souvenir® Sticky Note™ 4" x 3" Pad, 25 Sheet and the RPET Dart Pen with Mobius Loop.

The team leading the project wanted to make sure that office essentials, as they were used up, were replaced with greener options. They liked that the backer on the adhesive notepads reinforced the company's message, making it clear to employees that the paper is FSC®-certified. The RPET Dart Pen was the perfect companion with its Mobius loop. Employees were excited to hear about and see in action the firm's commitment to sustainability.

case study

A large online father's support group was looking for products to add to their merch store. They thought the Dad Jokes calendar was the perfect fit – and they were right! The calendar generated a lot of buzz and sold out fast. Luckily, the group was able to order more calendars to add to their online store in time for the holidays. In social media posts, members of the groups shared their own dad jokes and how they were using the calendars to commemorate their children's milestones. The group plans to place an even larger order this year.

case study

An elementary school was preparing a retirement party for a beloved teacher who had invested 50 years in the district's children. They wanted to find something that not only reflected such a milestone but could also be used by the teacher in her retirement. Members of the planning committee selected the Mario Cioni Siena Clear Crystal Vase. The teacher was blown away by the beauty of the vase and struck by the thoughtfulness of the committee, who picked it because they knew her retirement plans included spending more time in her flower gardens.

case study

A radio station was pulling together VIP packages for their annual weekend music festival. They wanted an item that would make an impression, so they opted to provide a GCI Outdoor™ Freestyle Rocker™ for each ticketholder in this section. When concertgoers arrived at the venue, they found rows of the Freestyle Rocker™ neatly laid out and a Clear Fanny Pack filled with essentials on each seat. All the VIPs were beyond excited to spend the weekend in comfort with the Freestyle Rocker™ and were thrilled to have a lasting memento of the weekend that they could use on many future outdoor adventures.

case study

When most of their workforce remained remote after the pandemic, an accounting firm’s human resources department planned a wellness week centered around these employees’ needs. To kick off the event, each team member received the Massage Ball Set in the mail. Throughout the week, they learned other ways to relax through daily meditations, trivia games, and a gratitude challenge. In a post-event survey, employees expressed appreciation for the gift and reported feeling more appreciated by and more connected to the corporate office.

case study

A car dealership wanted to congratulate and build loyalty with first-time car buyers. When they handed over the keys, they also handed over a coupon for a free oil change and the Be Prepared Highway Kit. The dealership knew this group of buyers was unlikely to own jumper cables, and they also recognized the importance of the vest for safety. Most of the buyers expressed excitement when they received this unexpected gift, and many returned to the dealership for service needs even after their free oil change.

Good Value.

case study

A country club wanted to boost the number of fundraising events held at their golf course. Since most of these events included silent auctions, they decided to donate several Heathered Shoe Bag Golf Kits to every organization that booked an event with them. Organizers really appreciated the donation, and through word of mouth, the club booked several more fundraisers that season and saw bookings for the next summer increase dramatically.
